Background Check for Volunteers Working with Children

To our volunteers:

In an effort to provide the safest possible environment for our children, Channing Memorial Church, along with its insurance company, requires each volunteer who works with children to undergo a criminal background check.

Please provide a photocopy of your driver's license or another state or federally issued photo identification and the information requested below with your notarized signature.

To protect your privacy, this information is viewed only by Channing's Director of Religious Education and is sent directly to the office of the Rhode Island Attorney General in Providence. The check takes only a few days and is free of charge.
