

New England Grassroots Environment Fund

FUNDRAISING RESOURCES ON THE WEB

(NOTE: This list is by no means exhaustive but a good place to start)

Associated Grant Makers (AGM) – www.agmconnect.org: The regional association of grantmakers for MA and RI, providing information and resources for grantmakers and grant seekers. AGM publishes a comprehensive directory of Massachusetts Grantmakers, which is also available to members on-line.

Ben and Jerry's Foundation – www.benandjerrys.com/foundation: Grants to not-for-profit grassroots organizations, throughout the United States, facilitating social change by addressing the underlying conditions of social and environmental problems.

Chronicle for Philanthropy – www.philanthropy.com: The “newspaper of the nonprofit world” provides news and information related to fundraising, including grants information, job listings, and more. Much of the site is restricted to subscribers, but many articles are free of charge.

Community Foundations – These foundations have a number of grant programs, some unrestricted and many of them donor-advised, for groups within the specific state. Check each website listed for your state. Massachusetts and Connecticut have regional community foundations, so check for those in your geographic area.

Maine Community Foundation – www.mainecef.org

New Hampshire Charitable Foundation – www.nhcf.org

Rhode Island Foundation – www.rifoundation.org

Vermont Community Foundation – www.vermontcf.org

Environmental Support Center (ESC) – www.envsc.org: Provides and training and organizational assistance grants for capacity building. Also has a Leadership and Enhanced Assistance Program (LEAP) that provides larger funds for long-term assistance with organizational development.

The Foundation Center – www.fdncenter.org: An independent organization that provides information on foundation and corporate giving. Publishes a comprehensive Foundation Directory, available at many public libraries and/or state government libraries.

Guidestar – www.guidestar.org: The self-proclaimed “donor’s guide to the charitable universe”, this site provides a searchable database of more than 700,000 U. S. nonprofit organizations, including foundations, and serves as a gateway to online fundraising resources. You can look at each organization’s 990 Form which lists recipients and amounts of grants in the latest tax year.

Haymarket People’s Fund – www.haymarket.org: An activist based foundation committed to social change/environmental justice, Haymarket supports incorporated and unincorporated organizations throughout New England that organize or provide resources for organizing around a wide spectrum of issues, and who reflect in their action as well as their vision the principles Haymarket upholds. Groups must engage in grassroots organizing or provide resources for grassroots organizing efforts (note the focus on social change!).

New England Grassroots Environment Fund

New England Grassroots Environment Fund (NEGEF) – www.grassrootsfund.org: A unique funder/activist collaboration, NEGEF offers small grants up to $2,500 to New England activists working on a variety of environmental/sustainability initiatives in their communities. Applicants can be all-volunteer ad hoc groups who are not eligible for funds from larger foundations, as well as incorporated organizations with less than two full-time staff. In addition NEGEF offers a Boston Grants Initiative for groups working in Boston, Cambridge, Chelsea and Somerville with grants up to $10,000. NEGEF also provides training and technical assistance to its grantees. The website has links to other funding opportunities, events and training resources in New England.

Non-Profit Online News – www.news.gilbert.org: Provides comprehensive news about fundraising and more issues affecting the non-profit community. Part of the Gilbert Center, a non-profit resource center in Seattle that also operates an on-line fundraising mailing list.
