Oil & Water: Legends of Grassroots Action

Great Bay was almost the site of the world's largest oil refinery...but local residents Saved Our Shores

Join us for an interactive evening moderated by Virginia Prescott, host of New Hampshire Public Radio's "Word of Mouth" to learn how a small, committed group of activists in the 1970's fought a proposal that would have forever altered NH's seacoast and region.

- LEARN about the Onassis/Olympic Oil refinery fight directly from three of the original activists:
Nancy Sandberg — Chair, Save Our Shores
Sharon Meeker — Outreach, Save Our Shores
Dudley Dudley — NH Legislative Representative 1972-1976
- EXPLORE the strategies & tactics used that are still effective today for activists protecting our environment
- HONOR the activists of yesterday and engage for today and tomorrow
